

NORWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY
CELL PHONE USE

The Norwell Public Library will limit the use of cell phones within the confines of the library building to ensure an atmosphere conducive for those conducting independent study and contemplation.

Regulation:

The library staff will request that patrons leave the building to take or receive calls. Staff will suggest patrons use the entryway alcove to carry on their phone conversation.

Procedures:

1. Patrons needing to place or receive a call are asked to use the library entranceway.
2. To maintain library decorum patrons whose phones ring in the building will be asked to leave.

Adopted June 2004